... hike in 2018 are increasing," said Gaurav Kapur, chief economist of IndusInd Bank. The likelihood of actual inflation drifting towards the upper level of the inflation tolerance band (6 per cent) has increased, and "that may call for not only vigilance on inflation but a pre-emptive rate hike in July or August without changing the neutral stance", Kapur said. The policy statement said the economy was on a recovery path, including early signs of a revival of investment activity, but "deterioration in public finances risks crowding out of private financing and investment".
